Crack.netlux.antivirus.1.0.0.3.boff checked .Lux.antivirus.1.0.0.3.boff Since you are using the web.config file you are probably using .NET 4.0 or higher. If you are using lower version I don't think that you will be able to read this file with the using statement. I don't have your code but I believe that you can change the file then delete it. After that you can use again the using statement to read it. Regarding the code I created myself, the server will not work if the code is not compiled. I did compile it so that might be the problem. But I can't send it to you because I can't get it to send. So unless you can send to me your code I can't help you. Q: How to make JFrame borderless?

A: No. Prepositions don't really have tense, but that doesn't mean they don't have tense-like properties. For example, there's a pair of prepositions (never/nevertheless) that don't take the subjunctive because they come before a statement which turns out to be the reason why you shouldn't use the subjunctive in that statement.
